WASTED ELOQUENCE

In a small country church in England, not long ago, a little child was brought forward for baptism. The young minister, taking the little one in his arms, spoke as follows:

"Beloved, no one can foretell the future of this little child. He may grow up to be a great astronomer, like Sir Isaac Newton, or a great labor leader, like John Burns; and it is possible that he might become the prime minister of England."

Turning to the mother, he inquired: "What is the name of the child?" "Mary Ann," was the reply.—Top-Notch.

HIS FAVORITE

Nurich (furnishing his gallery)—Let me see. I've got lots of the old masters now, haven't I?

Clerk—Yes, sir.

Nurich—Now I'll want something for myself. What have you in cartoons and funny pictures?—Judge.

We suppose that when universal suffrage arrives the women will insist that the names of the states be written thus:

Callie Fornia.
Della Ware.
Florrie Da.
Ida Ho.
Louisa Anna.
Mary Land.
Minnie Sota.

—Columbia State.
